

A CT Transportation Leadership Program REQUIRED Workshop - Cohort 10

Module Two: Maximizing Your DiSC Style to Lead Your Team to Success

For a team to be successful, it is essential that members communicate clearly and understand each other. Knowing our own DiSC style and understanding team members' needs and preferences will positively impact morale, productivity, and overall cohesiveness. In this session, we will review our own styles and learn how to "read" our team members to assess their preferences and needs. We will also discuss strategies and tools for using this information to more clearly communicate with them and build a strong team.

Session is 8:30am - 3:00pm

Registration begins at 8:00am

Lunch will be provided
