

(Register HERE)

AGENDA

Tuesday, April 23, 2019

Rentschler Field

9:00-9:15 am	Opening Remarks: Cathy Rossi, AAA Allied Group, VP Public and Govt Affairs Dr. Eric Jackson, UConn Transportation Safety Research Center
9:15-10:00 am	Chan Lieu, Venable, CT AV Task Force
10:00-10:45 am	Jessica Nigro, Daimler North America, PAVE
10:45 – 11:00 am	Break
11:00 – 11:30 am	Panelist Presentations (see below)
11:30 – 12:00 pm	Q & A
12:00 – 12:05 pm	Closing Remarks

Presenters:

Jessica Nigro
Daimler North America Corp.
Founding Member, PAVE

Daimler North America is one of the founding members of PAVE, a newly formed coalition to promote public education around automated vehicle technology.

Ms. Nigro is the head of Technology and Innovation Policy in Daimler's Washington, DC office. Current hot topics she spends her time on include automated vehicle policy, connectivity, data and cybersecurity, and future mobility strategy.

Chan Lieu
Venable LLP
Connecticut Autonomous Vehicles Task Force

Chan Lieu, a member of the Connecticut Autonomous Vehicles Task Force, is a senior policy advisor at Venable, with extensive experience in legislative, policy, and regulatory issues involving transportation, data and cybersecurity, privacy and emerging technologies

Moderator:

Amy Parmenter, AAA, Greater Hartford

Panelists:

- Tyler Suiters, Consumer Technology Association
- Eric Jackson, Director, Connecticut Transportation Safety Research Center at UConn
- Peter Calcaterra, Transportation Planner at Connecticut Department of Transportation

